Freak Storms Cause Damage In Many Areas

Blizzards, floods, wind storms are reported in scattered sections of nations

SEVERAL DEATHS DUE TO STORMS
(By International News Service)

Blizzards, floods, wind storms, rain cold and drought left a trail of death, a vast amount of property damage and considerable physical suffering in widely scattered sections of the nation today.

Hardest hit by the freakish elements yesterday was the Texas Panhandle where two men and a woman lost their lives when tornado winds and floods battered the upper half of the state.

Mrs. Sam Patterson, 62, was burned to death in her wind-wrecked farm home in Denton county, northern Texas.

Chris Pace, 47, was killed when a high wind wrecked his home in Oakley, Texas, and an unidentified man perished when his automobile plunged into the Trinity river during a flood south of Dallas, Texas.

Several persons were injured when 25 homes were wrecked in the Woodson area of Throckmorton county, Texas, as high winds caused heavy damage over Comanche, Brown and Itasca counties.

Some 500 persons in eight buses and about 175 private cars were trapped for seven hours in a blinding blizzard near Cloquet, Minn., while they were taking basketball players, bands and fans to a tournament at Cloquet.

Heiress Divorce Trial Concluded

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 28.—(INS)—A decision is under consideration today in the torrid divorce battle between heiress Gioia Grinditch and her Philadelphia socialite husband, William Henry Grinditch, Jr.

The sensational trial, which revolved around the heiress' purple-covered diary and the meaning of entries she made in it, ended late yesterday after four turbulent days.

Superior Judge J. Mercer Johnson said he would decide the bitterly-fought case some time next week, after he has studied the evidence.

He is to decide who is to get the divorce, since each is seeking it, and who is to be given custody of their two small children, also sought by both.

Pa Newc Observes

With the current interest in Czechoslovakia and President Edward Beneš, Carl Hanna reminds Pa Newc that in July 1942, Voyta Beneš, brother of President Beneš, addressed one of the service clubs of New Castle. For those who heard him on that occasion it might be of interest to recall some of the speaker's observations in the light of current developments in Czechoslovakia.

An interesting feature of the February 29 celebrators came to light with the announcement received from Mr. and Mrs. William Winfield, R. D. 2, Ellwood City, that they were married on February 29, 1936. Although they have been married for 12 years, they will be celebrating the actual anniversary only for the third time on Sunday.

Ruthless Purge Is Promised By Czech Premier

(BULLETIN)

PRAGUE, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister V. A. Zorin left Prague today for Moscow, his job of placing Czechoslovakia under communist control completed.

Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, Trade Union Leader Antonin Zapotocky and Interior Minister Zdenek Fibertinger saw him off at the airport.

By ROBERT HECKERT
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PRAGUE, Feb. 28.—Communist Premier Klement Gottwald promised a "ruthless and merciless" purge of Czechoslovakia's administration today, and announced drastic land reforms.

The new "strong-man" of Czechoslovakia told delegates of the Communist Farmers' committee that all landholdings exceeding 125 acres will be confiscated and partitioned out to agricultural workers.

Gottwald spoke shortly after Dr. Prokop Drtina, ex-minister of justice and a strong anti-Communist was found suffering severe head wounds, and had to be hospitalized.

The Communist-run Czech police said that Drtina was an attempted suicide. While in office, Drtina was responsible for the investigation of a Leftist bomb plot.

Gottwald told the farmers that he intended to press through vast reforms before the new elections were held.

The Communist boss said his government would appear before parliament soon to press its campaign.

Strike Ties Up City Bus Lines In Ellwood City

Bus drivers and mechanics of the Ellwood City Motor Coach company struck this morning at 1 o'clock. What efforts were made to bring about a settlement of the difficulty failed, and the men walked off this morning. They are striking for wage increases, overtime and safety devices.

The strike was effected with little confusion. As the late shift brought their buses in, the drivers left the barn. Today some picketing was going on but this was confined mostly to a few of the employees standing near the office and garage of the company.

Plans Probe Of Military Needs In China Now

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Sen. Styles Bridges (R) N. H., chairman of the senate appropriations committee, promised a congressional inquiry to determine just what China needs in American military aid to combat communism.

Bridges made his statement after it was disclosed that the United States is backing the Chiang Kai-shek government with an air force of 1,071 planes and equipment estimated to cost nearly 300 million dollars.

The senate leader, long an advocate of increased aid to China, said the air force program is "helpful but not adequate."

Needs Arms Desperately

The New Hampshire Republican emphasized that China desperately needs small arms, ammunition and equipment for foot soldiers fighting the communist forces.

Of the newly disclosed agreement under which this country has shipped 936 wartime airplanes to China, Bridges said:

"This aid is helpful but it in no way represents adequate military aid because China needs small arms, equipment for foot soldiers and ammunition for small arms."

County School Directors Have Interesting Discussion Of Matter At Meeting

NAME AUDITOR AND DIRECTORS

That the county be merged into one administrative district, instead of the various township boards as at present, seems to be only a matter of a short time, according to the trend in education, it was brought out at Friday's annual convention of county school directors, held at the court house.

The discussion of the matter was the last item on yesterday's program and produced an animated discussion.

County Board

Under the plan, the county as a whole would be under the jurisdiction of the county board, as one administrative unit. There would also be larger attendance areas, several townships, perhaps, including some of the boroughs, being incorporated in one attendance area, where the pupils would attend central schools.

The law requires the county board to set up a plan and submit it to the Pennsylvania Council of Education by July 1, when if approved, it will be placed on the ballot for a vote by the county residents. If the plan is rejected by the voters, the idea must be re-submitted within a period of five years.

Directors Named

Joseph Leeper, of Edinburg, was named auditor for the coming year, and two school directors were elected, George Lawrence, of Shenango township, being re-elected, while Russell McClelland, of Scott township, was named J. A. McClemonds, of Slippery Rock township, when the (Continued on Page Two)

Unofficial Low Bid Of $41,058 Revealed For Straightening Work At East New Castle

Pennsylvania Department of Highways at Harrisburg announced today that the New Castle Duntile company was unofficial low bidder on the construction and straightening work to be done at East New Castle on Route 88 in Shenango township. The company bid $41,058 on the job which will include the straightening and rebuilding of the road for a distance of 19 miles at the intersection of the Savannah and Old Pittsburgh roads.

The dangerous curve at the intersection of Route 88 and the above named roads has resulted in numerous accidents. The contract calls for the elimination of the bad curve in the highway and rebuilding of the road which will make a much needed improvement and eliminate a dangerous traffic hazard.

County commissioners conferred with state highway department officials last fall in order to have some action taken on the improvement of the road at this point. Work is expected to get under way the coming summer.

Girls Of Aurora, Ill., Stage Leap Year Coup

By ELIZABETH FAIRBAIN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

AURORA, Ill., Feb. 28.—Tomorrow the world will bow with due reverence to that happy occasion for the weaker of the human species—leap year.

But out in Aurora, a Fox river valley community of around 55,000 hardy souls, the leap year observance will be an anti-climax.

Yesterday, 55 unmarried women of Aurora got a head start on the world, seized control of the city government in a leap year coup and went on a manhunt for bachelors from dawn to dusk.

And it was official. Except for the war years, such goings on have turned Aurora upside down every leap year since 1932.

Coal Operators Oppose Pension Plan Of Lewis

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—The soft coal industry today showed no sign of relaxing its opposition to John L. Lewis' pension proposal after the issue by operators from all sections of the country.

In a five-hour session in Washington, the mine owners heard "tentative reports" on an actuarial study of Lewis' demand for a $100 a month pension for miners aged 60 with 20 years of service.

One industry spokesman said the cost of the LMW pension plan would greatly exceed the 60 million dollars annually now being paid to the miners welfare fund from a ten cents a ton royalty on coal.

The operators declined to make public details of their investigation, however, until it is completed.

Finland Will Soon Reply To Red Demands

Considered Inevitable That Finland Will Comply With Russia's Demand

DEEP PESSIMISM PREVAILS IN FINLAND

By NED NORDNESS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HELSINKI, Feb. 28.—The next 30 to 60 hours may determine whether Finland will bow to Russia's demand for a broad military-commercial pact or attempt to make a stand against Kremlin pressure.

A reliable informant said that the decision would be made over the week-end and most observers considered it inevitable that Finland would have to accept.

(Reuters reported from Helsinki) that a majority of Finland's political parties now are ready to accept the Soviet demands.)

Utmost Tension

The atmosphere in Helsinki was one of utmost tension and deep pessimism.

The foreign office announced yesterday that the demands came in the form of a personal letter from Premier Generalissimo Stalin to Finland's president, Dr. Juho Paasikivi.

An opposition source asserted today that this announcement was part of a diplomatic maneuver by Communist sympathizers in the foreign office. Actually, the note was said to have been a formal diplomatic document from the Kremlin.

To Lose Liberty

The Finnish people in general, however, felt that it mattered little whether Stalin or Foreign Minister M. Molotov signed the note as they are so convinced that the outcome will mean a tie-up with the Soviet Union and loss of their liberty.

It is known that associate foreign minister Reinhold Svento, who is nominally in the folk Democratic party, is strongly pro-Communist.

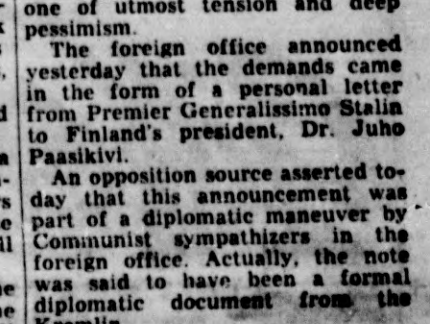

President Juho Paasikivi is believed to have been the main force behind the breaking of the secrecy involving the Soviet note. The aged and ailing Finnish leader was said to be anxious to break the tension caused by endless rumors.

Arrest Bachelors

With this vital intelligence in hand, blue-coated girl officers went out to arrest the bachelors. The "officers" came streaming through the rain hour after hour with their precious prisoners.

The men were put down in the basement jail to await an appearance before Police Magistrate Helen Youngen, 24. The fines amounted to nylons and slippers, stacked conveniently at her right hand just waiting for buyers.

Magistrate Youngen gave them little chance to speak in their defense.

"Do you or do not, plead guilty to the charge of being a bachelor," she would begin sternly, and seldom had any trouble eliciting a weak "yes".

Most of the men captured took the gesture in stride and saw it through. However, in the short space of one hour when the jail and built pen became so loaded with "guests" that breathing was uncomfortable, the inevitable happened.

Two locks were broken on a door to the alley and the grand exodus began.

Men's Bible Class Has Annual Banquet

Gather At First Baptist Church For Annual Event; Rev. H. A. Redmond Makes Address

Members of the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church assembled on Friday evening for their annual banquet in the dining room of the church. There was a large attendance.

Toastmaster of the evening was Manning Weller, his part being carried out in an efficient manner. The group joined in singing the doxology, led by Dan Peterson, class chorister, who directed the group singing of the evening. Rev. O. W. Hurst, the pastor, and teacher of the class, gave the invocation. Miss Martha Davis was the evening accompanist.

All partook of a sumptuous chicken dinner and all the trimmings.

For the program, the Grace Bible church male quartet gave a number of selections, accompanied by Rev. Howard A. Redmond, pastor of Mahoningtown Presbyterian church. Rev. Redmond gave a splendid rendition of two gospel songs and variations on the piano. Frank Kleeman and Francis Wier sang a couple of duets, to the accompaniment of Harry Meyers.

The program was well received. Rev. Redmond, speaker of the evening, gave an inspiring address, taking as his theme "Christianity Is Not An Armchair, But An Act". He talked of armchair strategists criticizing the leaders in the field; quite a contrast between the ones in the chair and the field. One has words, the other, actions and deeds. Christianity must be a personal thing, not a cause, but should be "my cause". The cause of Jesus Christ surpasses business, pleasure and all else. Let us try and be as popular as Jesus would be in our business, our vocations and other ways of life.

Rev. Hurst gave a short address, and spoke of the class contest after Easter with Great Bethel Baptist church of Uniontown. Harry Saunders, president of the class, said he was delighted with the success of the occasion. Dr. J. W. Neyman spoke of a class contest during one of his pastorates.

Mrs. Leroy Martin, president of Section 6, who prepared and served the delicious dinner, was called forward by the toastmaster and given the thanks of all, and presented with a check from the class. John Klingensmith handled the picture machine, and showed movies of world series baseball games of 1947. John McClelland was thanked for flowers and decorations, and Ralph Mooney for the recorder. Social committee was Donald Hackett, Howard Criswell, Edward Hackett and Dan Reeber.

Senate Rejects Seaway Project

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Sen. Aiken (R) Vt., said today that he will renew his fight for the pigeonholed St. Lawrence seaway project next year and carry the battle "to the grass roots".

The senate, by a 57 to 30 vote, returned to the foreign relations committee the measure to authorize participation with Canada in a joint program of deepening the St. Lawrence and building locks to bring ocean vessels into the Great Lakes, and of constructing hydro-electric power dams.

Aiken and Sen. Wiley (R) Wis., spearheads of the battle for the project, both conceded that it is dead for the present session.

TALK ON INDIANS FOR SOROSIS CLUB

An interested group of Sorosis Club members gathered Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Thomas Gilkey, 305 Rhodes place, for its only February meeting, when "Indians" was the program subject.

Vice-President Mrs. F. G. Simonon was in charge of proceedings. Answer to roll-call was "A celebrity born in February" and the fact was recalled that three presidents of the United States had been born in February—Washington, Harrison and Lincoln.

A talk by Mrs. John L. Emery on "The Indians" gave an enlightening view of the unjust conditions now confronting that unfortunate race. She stated that of the numerous tribes of Indians, only the Seminoles have retained their independence.

Parliamentary drill by Mrs. Thomas Lindsey proved exceptionally interesting, and her Orders "Special and Otherwise" was followed by an instructive discussion by members.

Next meeting of Sorosis will be in two weeks, the hostess to be announced later.

LOOK-OUT CLASS MONTHLY SOCIAL

Twenty-one member of the Look-Out class of the First Christian church gathered in the church parlors Friday evening for their monthly social meeting. Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Laura Snider were host and hostesses for the evening.

Following the business meeting a social time was enjoyed with prizes for game winning being awarded to Mrs. Don Rice, Mrs. Clair Shaffer and Henry Goughier. A treasure hunt was enjoyed by the children of the members attending, with Nancy Taylor capturing the prize. Shuffleboard was also enjoyed by members of the group.

A lunch was served at a table attractively decorated in spring colors.

The group will be entertained March 26 in the home of Mrs. Harold Dunlap, 712 Court street.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

The governments of the United States, Britain and France are firmly convinced that an unsuspecting Czechoslovak people were hoodwinked by the bloodless Communist revolution that took away their liberty.

Such is the interpretation that can be given the virtually unprecedented joint statement by the three powers condemning the latest Red coup as one that "can only be disastrous for the Czechoslovak people."

The declaration obviously was designed not for consumption by the Communist regime of Premier Klement Gottwald but by the ordinary people of Czechoslovakia and of Europe as a whole.

Fraud And Sham
It ought to drive home to the people who have been mistakenly cheering their Red leadership that they were sold out, cheated by an artificially-constructed set of circumstances and reduced to virtual peonage in place of the freedom for which they fought so valiantly.

At the moment, it is difficult to predict what effect the move may have.

But it is clear that the western democracies have embarked upon a campaign of pitiless exposure to drive home the illegality of Soviet political methods and their baleful consequences.

The Allies' swift diplomatic move may take the Communists somewhat off their guard.

The latter made certain before the ostensible "reorganization" of Gottwald's government that they had full control of Czechoslovakia's press and radio.

Will Broadcast Truth
This means that the statement can be ignored or ridiculed by official Communist spokesmen and the latter probably will be the case. But the voice of America broadcasts, the BBC, and the grapevine will ensure that the declaration reaches even the remotest hamlets.

The framers of the note doubtless took a psychological view of the situation.

The Czechs and Slovaks are proud people, even when their origins are most humble. Obviously they will not care to be pictured as dolts and idiots who have been led around by the nose.

Yet the statement gives the clear inference that such was precisely the case—that the Czechoslovaks failed to hear the Kremlin's prompting from the wings.

Expressions of indignation on paper have not had any too great effect in the past in halting political expansionism in Europe.

Yet the Red tide is moving ever closer to the west where the scale of intellect and intelligence generally rises with each passing mile. This joint outspoken act of disapproval by Paris, London and Washington eventually may have profound effect.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

No wonder a lot of people think that this country is going to the dogs.

No wonder many Europeans and other foreigners get a wrong opinion of our country.

They are reading some of those books that are now all the rage and that make you believe that we are a nation of neurotics, homosexuals, degenerates and—nuts.

For instance, here is a book—widely advertised, but I shall not lead you into temptation by mentioning the title—in which a young snipe of an author (Class 1947, University of California), writes as follows:

"Most of the men have been emasculated and present no more menace than a housebroken dog. And yet the omnipotent American woman is unhappy and doesn't know why. She complains that American men are bad lovers. Of course they are. . . . The women are beginning to suffer the long-term effects of their unnatural rule."

The climax of this book, by the way, is a young man drinking himself into a stupor.

So much for that ridiculous picture of American life.

Now comes a few more tidbits advertised and reviewed in the Sunday book section of my newspaper.

Heading: LET THIS FAMOUS DOCTOR TELL YOU HOW TO GET RID OF "NERVES" (The word NERVES is done in those shaky letters that are supposed to give you the jitters.)

Subheading: Are you troubled by "nerves"—jitters, everlastingly tired, unable to relax or get a good night's sleep? Read below how a great doctor offers you a simple method of relief.

Then comes a whole page of copy that make you believe that by sending the attached coupon and $2.50 you will be a new man or woman.

Heading: FROM THIS HELL I RISE STILL SANE—AND FIGHTING.

Text: "I don't know how other women react to a husband's infidelities. But to me they brought a nervous breakdown. As a 'sick' woman I was a nuisance to my husband. So he sent me to several expensive mental sanatoriums." Etc., etc., etc.

Blurb: "This startling volume tells of recent laboratory researches into the unknown powers of the human mind—telepathy, clairvoyance, direct control of matter of mental forces, and the prospect of proving the survival of personality after death . . ."

And so it goes—enough of that kind of stuff in one book section to get the average reader three times as mixed up as he is already.

Fortunately there are also a number of useful books advertised, books about hunting and fishing and some real love stories (with a happy ending) and one about playing better golf.

But there's enough gruesome stuff published to make you wonder why on earth our educators pick on the comics.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

The City Fathers are really on the ball . . . yesterday afternoon they met and sent to the Zoning Committee an Ordinance changing strictly private home section to a section that will permit apartments . . .

We feel this is very fine . . . The way they build apartments is a lot better than the little cracker box type homes which have been built in the past. A very fine example of fine looking apartments can be seen on North Mercer Street hill . . . The Sussex Apartments built by the New Castle Duntle people . . . a real credit to the town.

Last night it started . . . today at two o'clock and again tonight at seven it will continue . . . everyone should attend, especially those people who have faith in the United States of America . . . We are referring of course to the Boy Scout Merit Show which has been set up in the dining rooms of The Cathedral. Here the population have an opportunity to see for themselves just exactly what a membership in a Scout Troop means.

Certain requirements are set for each boy who joins the Scouts . . . In order for any boy to advance (and what boy who wants to be a man doesn't want to advance) he must pass certain Merit Tests . . . The show is built around that theme . . . very few New Castle citizens have seen such a show . . . and those who attended last night all praised the work very highly. Why don't you take time to make a visit and have your eyes opened.

Monday is the opening day in New Castle for the Annual Red Cross Membership campaign . . . Hundreds of people have indicated their desire to help with this year's campaign . . . Thousands of people will renew their membership in the Red Cross and many more will join for the first time. Cooperation makes a community . . . communities make a country and there is no such country as the United States of America . . . so that makes you the envy of the world.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

American Brotherhood Week

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—While you may not have guessed it from the headlines, this is American Brotherhood Week. With hand grenades selling at 80 cents in Jerusalem and with the Communist police in Prague squeezing out the breath of a once vigorous democracy, there seems little enough brotherhood in the world.

But the headlines do not tell the whole story. As so often in the past, the irony is that ordinary men and women seem to have so little to do with the plots, the intrigues, the violence, the hatreds that are carried on by those who occupy the seats of power.

Here in America, as the political name-calling grows more and more shrill, it is important to remember that I think it could be demonstrated that never before in this country was there such overflowing good will toward those in need, whatever their race or creed.

Takes Many Forms
It takes many forms. The Friendship Train continues to roll toward the ports, even though it was six months ago that Drew Pearson first sparked the popular imagination with that brilliant idea: They carry the bounty of the American people freely given. When the food is distributed in France or Italy or wherever, no one asks the politics of the families who receive it.

The other day, Secretary of State George C. Marshall heard about a new kind of Marshall Plan. He listened while the members of a troop of Boy Scout Cubs from Bethesda, Md., told him of their plan to earn money so they could send food to a Boy Scout troop in France.

The photograph taken of that session was a classic. There was Secretary Marshall, whose true greatness is reflected in the dignity and simplicity of everything he does, talking with those youngsters.

Of course, it was planned. Those things do not happen without planning. But the idea originated with the boys themselves and that is the important thing.

The Scouts will use that swiftly growing institution, CARE, to send food to Scouts across the seas. CARE is the simplest and quickest way to get food to the hungry abroad. Nearly $3,000,000 worth a month is being sent overseas in $10 CARE packages.

Wants To Rebuild Town
A former Army Air Forces flyer wants to help rebuild the town he bombed in France. In a number of American towns that bear European names, people have come together to send clothing and food to the namesake cities overseas. Instance after instance comes into the news to show how deep is the reservoir of brotherly feeling.

However, it seems at times difficult or impossible to translate this widespread good feeling into political action under our form of government. This is true even though it is fairly certain that Congress will pass a European-aid program on a scale never before dreamed of. It is true when action is measured against the magnitude of need in a period of revolutionary change.

An issue that tests how far the sense of brotherhood extends is the proposal to admit 100,000 displaced persons a year into this country for four years. Rep. William G. Stratton of Illinois has for many months been pushing a bill to do that. It has wide support from organizations and individuals, yet it seems impossible to get action.

Would Relieve Pressures
By such a step, pressures would be relieved everywhere. It would immeasurably simplify the problem of Germany and Palestine. This is true even though most of the Jewish refugees, who make up only 30 percent of the total of displaced persons, are determined to go to Palestine instead of the United States. Quite apart from providing homes and employment for thousands now pensioners, the admission of displaced persons into this country would set an example to other nations that have also held back.

The chief reason for the reluctance is obvious. People feel insecure. They fear their jobs will be threatened by newcomers who may work for less money.

It is this same insecurity that breeds the frustration and the fear out of which come our own hate groups. Those hate groups would turn brother against brother. They are the real enemies of America and the American way of life.

The reservoir of good will, of brotherly love, in this country is a reality. If it is dissipated by political ineptitude and political indifference, the world will be a far poorer place.

Great Game Of Politics

Mr. Truman And The South

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—THE hot temper of Southern Democrats over the obvious effort of President Truman, through his Federal fair employment practices and other kindred proposals, to woo the Negro vote in the ten Northern states where it is large enough to affect the result, is easy to understand. It strikes at the deepest of their prejudices and constitutes a threat to the social order of their section, hard to contemplate calmly.

THIS is a serious matter in the South, but what particularly enrages its representatives is the well-founded conviction that, politically, Mr. Truman is playing both ends against the middle and that this makes them appear the prize political boons in history. For example, while the President makes these overtures to the Negroes in the hope of gaining their support in places where it is most needed, he well knows how offensive they are to the South, and is fully aware that the Southern States, whose electoral votes are vital to his election, have no alternative but to support him.

THIS is indignantly regarded as taking unfair advantage of the loyal people of a great section. Certainly, it does make great saps of the Southern Democrats, leaders as well as rank and file. Nevertheless, their anger against the unfortunate Mr. Truman is not entirely reasonable. If the heated statements below the Mason and Dixon line will reflect calmly upon the recent political past, several things will become clear to them—first, that the above-mentioned gestures were forced upon Mr. Truman, not chosen by him; second, that he had little more choice in making them than they have in meeting them; third, that responsibility for the dependence of the Democratic party upon a combination of the Negro vote in the North and the labor bosses in the big cities is not Mr. Truman's but wholly that of his predecessor, Mr. Roosevelt.

IT was Mr. Roosevelt who first made boos of Southern Democrats, not Mr. Truman. The latter is merely following the Roosevelt lead. It was Mr. R., not Mr. T., who swung the Democratic party away from its historic position, transformed its character, baited and beguiled the traditionally Republican Negroes into becoming Democrats, formed a White House alliance with the CIO, opened the door to the radicals and drove millions of conservative Democrats out of the party. This was its nature when three years ago Mr. Truman became its titular head. Now, with Mr. Wallace diverting part of the labor vote, most of the radicals and some of the Negroes, it is clear that neither Mr. Truman nor any other Democrat possibly can win this year without holding the bulk of the Negroes in Massachusetts, New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan, who voted almost solidly for Mr. Roosevelt in 1936, 1940 and 1944.

ONE only has to analyze the votes in these states in 1940 and 1944 to confirm these facts. Take, for example, the typical State of Maryland, where there are approximately 100,000 registered Negro voters. In the last election Mr. Roosevelt carried Maryland by 23,000. Conservative estimates by leaders of both parties agreed not less than 50,000 Negroes voted for him. Take New York—In 1944 Mr. Roosevelt carried it over Mr. Dewey by 317,000. Hardly anyone questions that more than that many Negroes voted for him. A similar case for Democratic dependence on the Negro votes can be made out in all the other states where they are enough to be a factor. There are at least nine of these.

IN BRIEF, this vote has become essential to Democratic success and the practical politicians in both parties know it. Considering these things, when the Negro leaders, spokesmen and press unite, as they have, behind a proposal such as the fair employment practice bill, Mr. Truman has to come through. As well as anyone, he knows that, hell it will raise in the South, but he has no alternative. To fail meant that the Republicans would be able to stampede most of the Negroes "back home." And if they do that, concededly, the Democrats are sunk. There is nothing for Mr. Truman to do save continue the Roosevelt policy of making a boob of the Southern democracy.

HE WILL not get away with it as well as Mr. Roosevelt, who as a double dealer had a good deal more on the ball. Mr. Truman will lose more votes in the South, where the loss will not hurt. He will not get as solid Negro support in the North as did Mr. Roosevelt, but he will prevent that "stampede." It was in 1936 that Chairman James A. Farley, with unlimited Federal patronage, the employment of scores of traveling Negro teachers, preachers and speakers, the enthusiastic co-operation of the late Harry Hopkins and his WPA, wholehearted support from Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, made a calculated drive to take away from the Republicans what had been their basic asset since the Civil War.

A PRACTICALLY complete success was achieved. It was regarded by those responsible as the cleverest political coup in the history of American politics. Even in the South there then being no hint of the sort of legislation that now threatens it was so regarded. However, at the time there were some who warned that this might not turn out as smart as it seemed. Looking at the situation as it now exists, they appear to have been right.

Regular monthly meeting of the New Castle Methodist Ministerial association will be held Monday at the Y.M.C.A. building, opening with a 12:30 o'clock fellowship luncheon followed by the business session at 1:30 o'clock.

The meeting will be in charge of Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti, president, with Rev. Owen Shields conducting the devotional period which will be followed by the business session. Several important committees appointed at the last meeting will report.

A large attendance is expected to take part in the discussion of the day. Rev. James A. Gaiser will report on the Union Holy Week service to be held each evening in all the Methodist churches of the city, when the pastors will be exchanging their pulpits. The series will culminate in a mass meeting on Friday of Holy Week in one of the larger churches to be designated.

Rev. Braun, vice president, and chairman of program committee, will present an outline of future meetings of the association and present the final report of the recent survey made in the city.

Rev. Thomas H. Morris, Grove City district superintendent, will be present to make special announcements.

SPECIAL SERVICES TO OPEN SUNDAY

Special evangelistic services will be open Sunday at the House of the Lord Mission, West Reynolds street, with Elder L. P. May of Littleton, Pa., who will be the evangelist. Elder May will speak each evening at 7:30.

The mission is being operated by Jess Lastoria of this city.

Preparing For Fourth Sunday Of Campaign

Tomorrow, February 29, is the fourth Sunday of the eight weeks pre-Easter increase campaign which is in progress with 75 Sunday schools participating and goals of increases in evangelism, Sunday school attendance and Bible study. This campaign is sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association.

To date the results attained have been encouraging, but more pronounced increases are anticipated for the remaining four Sundays culminating with a record-breaking attendance Easter. A splendid spirit of cooperation prevails throughout the Sunday schools taking part, as the need for bigger and better Sunday schools is realized.

The first four Sundays of the campaign have been devoted to the publishing of attendance, but starting with the fifth Sunday the percentage standings for each Sunday school enrolled will be published for New Castle district on Tuesday. While in every competitive effort there are winners, still the purpose of the campaign is primarily to increase the attendance of all the 75 Sunday schools enrolled, as well as to promote the other three goals.

Practically all of the ministers of Lawrence county are planning to stress evangelism before Easter especially, and any outstanding efforts along these lines will be published if turned in to county Sunday school headquarters. The Bible study goal may best be reached through leadership training schools.

Bible reading outlines for the year are provided by the Christian Herald religious calendars and pamphlets put out by the American Bible society, the Moody Bible Institute and other Christian organizations. Sunday school superintendents are urged to have a supply of these on hand, and to urge that they be used systematically.

Episcopalians Set For Bishop's Talk

Although they will not be able to see him, members of Trinity Episcopal church, North Mill at Falls street, will listen attentively Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock as the presiding bishop, Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, speaks to them via radio from New York City.

Episcopalians throughout the country will listen simultaneously with the local church folk to the message from the bishop, as he tells of the needs of war-devastated Europe and Asia and urging Episcopal church members to accept their plain duty and privilege of helping these suffering millions.

Funds will be asked from the various churches, but due to a campaign raised earlier at the local Trinity Episcopal church, the quota has been met by the congregation and will be dispatched next week to the Bishop of Erie.

Architect Of Your Child's Mind

BUILDER OF HIS FUTURE

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops," says Henry Adams. And how much more immediate and close to home is the teacher's influence on your child's mind—his kind of thinking—his equipment for success in life.

Yes, the teacher is vitally important to your child's whole future welfare... yet there are not enough teachers today to guarantee each child his full quota of education. Classrooms are overcrowded, school hours are cut short, individual attention and guidance almost impossible.

What Can Be Done In This Dangerously Urgent Crisis? YOU CAN HELP IN TWO WAYS:

- (1) Check up on educational conditions in your local schools.
- (2) Back up and work with organizations seeking to improve teachers' working hours and living conditions.

Unless every citizen takes action now, this far-reaching situation will effect the future of all our children and our future as a nation.

Court House Heavy Sentences Given By Lamoree

Numbers Writers "Get The Book"—Four Auto Drivers Sentenced

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Criminal court in Lawrence County was put upon a paying basis Friday morning. Judge John G. Lamoree was in mood to stay the weight of the law against the offenders he had before him. As a result the county will be $2350 richer in fines, plus the costs of the cases.

Three numbers writers drew the heaviest penalties. In the jargon of the jail house, the judge "threw the book at them." Each of the three was fined $500 and costs, and placed upon probation for one year. The fines of $500 are the maximum. From the tenure of the court's remarks it would not be surprising if the next offender in this field might have to do some time.

In appearing for the men, all of whom pleaded guilty, Attorney Edwin K. Logan told the court that these men were not working for any Longtan numbers bankers, that it was a "local industry." This plea seemed to have little effect upon the court.

The three were Alex Pascarella, Menelaos Pikoulis and John Ciccone.

Four pleas to driving while intoxicated were disposed of. The following men pleaded and received the following sentences: William S. Bell, William Parrott, Walter Smith and James H. Leisy, fined $100 and costs on thirty days in the county jail. Out in three if the fine and costs are paid.

Martin E. Fobes, from whose car a young woman fell one night several weeks ago, dying in the hospital subsequently, was fined $300 and costs and thirty days in the county jail. Out in five days if the fine and costs are paid.

Peter P. Bessell, failure to stop, was fined $10 and costs and thirty days in the county jail. Out in three days if the fine and costs are paid.

Dale Baker, larceny of a motor vehicle, was fined $1 and costs and 11 to 12 months in the Allegheny County workhouse.

P. M. Davis, aggravated assault and battery, fined $1 and costs and 90 days in the workhouse. Davis explained he was not a Pennsylvanian. The court responded by saying he would be for some time but that when his sentence was up it would appreciate it he continue not being a Pennsylvanian.

NAVAL RESERVE GETS ROOMS
By action of the county commissioners, the Naval Active Reserve will soon have its own rooms for meetings. The commissioners have granted the Reserve the right to use two rooms on the third floor of the Annex building.

The Naval Active Reserve is composed of men who have served in the Navy and who are willing to devote a little time each week towards keeping up on naval practice. Attorney Walter A. Kiehl is the head of the Reserve unit here.

Will Seek Further Cut In President's Budget Proposals

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), ranking minority member of the house appropriations committee, announced today that he will move to increase the GOP-sponsored two and one-half billion dollar cut in President Truman's 1949 fiscal year budget.

Cannon in a house speech upbraided Republicans for not economizing enough and proposed that the president's 39 billion, 700 million dollar budget be slashed by three billion dollars.

Congressional action on the GOP resolution calling for a two and one-half billion dollar cut in the budget will be completed today.

Cannon vigorously attacked house Republicans for their economy claims. He said that they had promised to cut six billions last year from the budget, "but they didn't do it."

He added that this year GOP leaders have promised cuts of six to seven and one-half billions, but they are sponsoring instead a cut of only two and one-half billions.

City Hall Zoning Change Gets Sanction

Council Favors Change So That Apartment Buildings Can Be Erected

OTHER ACTION AT COUNCIL SESSION

Council met in special session Friday afternoon in city hall where there was introduced, sent to, then reported favorably from committee, an ordinance changing a section of the North Hill from an A to a D zone.

The section is Euclid Avenue, bounded on the west by Highland Avenue, north by the center line of Summer Avenue, east by Delaware Avenue, and south by the center line of Euclid Avenue.

The ordinance has been sent to the Planning commission for its approval. A public hearing on the proposed change will be held March 22, following which council will consider the action of the Planning commission, and results of the hearing, then act finally.

The Board of Appeals, in charge of Zoning, today presented a recommendation that the change be made.

Would Erect Building
A letter to the board from Dr. W. E. Flannery, M.D. stated that Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Flannery, Miss Nora McGrath, and he had acquired lots 51-57, inclusive, on section 15 of the city survey (in Euclid Avenue).

The letter said it was the intention to erect one, and possibly two, three story brick buildings each to contain 12 apartments, of construction similar to that employed by the Sussex Housing corporation in North Mercer Street.

Sixteen nearby property owners signed in favor of the improvement.

Because a multiple building could not be erected in an A zone, the change to D, is now proposed.

Award Insurance Contract
Upon motion of Property Director Joseph D. Alexander, council awarded a contract to George Reid for insurance on city automobiles at a low bid of $1,513.21, per year.

E. B. Connelly presented a bid of $2,128.43.

Council, upon motion of Street Director James Gibson, voted approval of plans and specifications for the resurfacing with bituminous material of East Sheridan Avenue, Highland to Delaware Avenue, East Garfield Avenue, Highland to Delaware Avenue, and Leasure Avenue, Highland to Delaware Avenue, and North Mercer Street between East Washington and Falls Street. Ordinances for the improvement have been adopted.

Approval was given by the same motion for approval of plans and specifications of the Beckford-Randolph Streets storm sewer, and Arlington and Wilson Avenues storm sewer which will correct a water nuisance situation.

Y.W.C.A. Lenten Classes To Start

Dr. R. F. Galbreath To Teach
Young Women in Bible Series
Starting On March 4

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath will teach the Y. W. C. A. Lenten Bible classes on Thursday mornings, March 4, 11, 18 and 25, in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium at 10:30 o'clock.

The Y. W. C. A. Lenten Bible classes in New Castle were started 11 years ago when Miss Ethel Culler of the national Y. W. C. A. staff began the series with the gospel according to Luke. The next 10 years Mrs. J. J. McElvaine continued the series, taking other books of the Bible. Each year the attendance increased as women of churches found it helpful to meet together downtown one morning a week during Lent for prayer and study.

The religious education committee of the Y. W. C. A. feels most fortunate to have secured as teacher this year Dr. Robert Galbreath, formerly president of Westminster college and now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New Castle.

All women and girls are invited to the Bible classes from 10:30 to 11:30 on Thursday mornings. Business girls who have the 11 o'clock lunch hour are welcome to come in for as much of the class as they can arrange.

The Y. W. C. A. religious education committee in charge include Mrs. Grace Morris chairman, Mrs. Blanch Dillard co-chairman, Mrs. Charles Metzler, Mrs. Mont Alvey, Mrs. G. G. Horchler, Mrs. Frank Brennehan, Mrs. Henry Rodgers, Mrs. Andrew Dadds, Mrs. Charles A. Gardner, Mrs. C. D. Parker, Mrs. J. E. Rodgers and Mrs. Jack Bretell.

School Board Faces Special Meeting Call

Technicality On Matter Of Action
On Teachers' Salaries Needs
Speedy Action

Unless some action is taken by the New Castle School Board within a short time, teachers of the public school system will be deprived of half the special increment in salary granted them last spring.

At the special budget meeting held Wednesday night, Superintendent Frank L. Burton laid before the board a proposed schedule of salary adjustments which he believed fair and with which the teachers agreed. The matter was called up for discussion when it was suggested that no such plan could be acted upon in light of the resolution passed last spring.

This resolution adopted the salary schedule laid down by Act 515 of the 1947 General Assembly, but it went further and prescribed a special salary adjustment for 1948-49 given by the board. The increment varied. Its over-all provisions gave teachers an increase which would bring their salaries to $300 more than the 1946 mandated maximum.

Inasmuch as the 1947 act increased the maximums and thus the adjustment given by the board varied, in some cases being $50 and in some cases as high as $150. In order to get the proposed schedule of adjustments before the board for discussion, the resolution of early 1947 was revoked, the members apparently forgetting that the local increments rode with the adoption of the state mandate.

To Call Special Meeting
After examining the resolution, following the meeting, Secretary John B. Bechtel was convinced that the new resolution wiped out the local adjustments and asked Solicitor Robert L. Wallace for an opinion. Mr. Wallace concurred with Mr. Bechtel's position and said that no more of the local adjustments could be paid until some action was taken by the board.

Under the spring resolution the local increments have six months to run, which means half of the increase. As the matter stands as of now, these cannot be paid. Questioned about the revocation resolution members of the board said today there was no intent of cutting off the increments made by the board and said that undoubtedly a special meeting would be called to rectify the matter.

Pinball Machines Out At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 28.—Mayor Charles P. Henderson Friday sounded the death knell for pinball machines in Youngstown.

Mr. Henderson, who has campaigned against the rackets since becoming mayor January 1, handed down the order to marble board operators and their attorneys despite their suggestion that the machines be operated under an ordinance calling for revocation of licenses where gambling was permitted. He said this would be up to council.

Police last Saturday raided a number of downtown places and seized five marble boards.

Wheatland Tube Company Plans River Purifying

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—(INS)—The Wheatland Tube Co. of Wheatland, Pa., revealed plans today for a half-million dollar plant aimed at eliminating "pickle liquor" from the Ohio river in line with the state's anti-pollution program.

The program was described by Wheatland President, Edward F. Maneely as "unique" in that it will utilize a new process to obtain saleable goods from the water polluting "pickle liquor" and enable the company to eventually work the recovery plant at a profit.

The "pickle liquor" is used by steel plants in galvanizing operations to clean the steel and eliminating scales. It contains elements which dirty the state's streams and kill fish and plant life.

Millions of gallons of the liquid have found their way into the streams annually as a result of steel operations, and Maneely explained that under the new operation the company hopes to convert this former waste to profit.

The operation, as explained by Chris G. Sherr, of Philadelphia, its inventor, involves roasting the cheap zinc wastes that are found in all galvanizing work, and converting them to zinc oxide.

Business Shows Slight Increase

JUDGE JAMES NORMAN MARTIN

To no one in the community does the term "a gentleman of the old school" more aptly apply than to Judge James Norman Martin, who until very recently has been active in the practice of law here in the firm of Martin and Martin with his son, Norman Andrews Martin.

For the judge is a native of Lawrence county and has seen New Castle and the surrounding community expand during the latter part of the nineteenth century and the early years of this one to its present position as one of Pennsylvania's leading industrial centers.

Judge Martin has a fund of information regarding the early history of the county as his father was one of the early residents, having settled on a farm over in the eastern part of what is now Lawrence county.

Back in those days there were no well established schools, only what were known as subscription schools, the judge related, and the judge's mother, then Sara Mills, of Grove City, was engaged at the age of 18 to teach the subscription school that stood on the corner of the judge's grandfather's farm.

"Riding horseback was the proper thing in those days, roads then being what they were," related the judge, "and when my father took mother home on horseback, that's where their courtship started."

It was in the vicinity of Shepherd's school in Wilmington township that James Martin bought a farm of 130 acres (later enlarged to 440 acres) for his bride. A log house and log barn stood on the property but later a new house and barn were built and this house is the one now standing on the property, now owned by Jacob Hostetter.

Born in 1859

It was on October 30, 1859 that James Norman Martin was born and received his early education at Shepherd's School, later took two years of preparatory study at Westminster College and was graduated after four years' study from Westminster College in 1881 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

The summer after his graduation from college, he took a trip to the middle west and read law for some months in Leavenworth, Kan., with the Hon. Lucien Baker, afterward U. S. Senator from Kansas. After a severe bout of typhoid fever he returned to New Castle and registered to read law in the office of D. B. Kurtz.

He was admitted to the Bar in New Castle, Pennsylvania, September 23, 1883 and began his practice here with S. L. McCracken under the firm name of Martin and McCracken, a partnership dissolved in 1885. His office at that time was in the building on the northwest corner of East Washington street and Croton avenue, and later for a number of years maintained his office in the building at the corner of Court street near the Court House.

Since 1913 he has been in general practice in state and federal courts with his son with offices in Union Trust building.

Appointed Judge

In 1894 during the term of Gov. Robert E. Pattison he received an appointment as judge of the 17th district, succeeding Judge John McMichael on the bench. "To hold court in Butler," he says, "I traveled back and forth on the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad (now the B. & O.)."

Later, he was attorney for the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad Company, also served first on the Common Council for the City of New Castle and then on the Select Council between the years 1888 and 1894.

He became a director of the Citizens National Bank, then of the National Bank of Lawrence County and the Union Trust Company and of several manufacturing companies, including the Blair Strip Steel Company.

He is a member of the state and county bar associations, of the Masonic and Elks lodges, and belongs to Kappa Phi Lambda Fraternity. He is a member of the First Presbyterian church.

In 1884 Judge Martin was married to Jane Wood Andrews, now deceased, and had one son, Norman Andrews Martin, born in 1886.

Resides on North Mercer St.

His residence at 302 North Mercer street, where he still resides, Judge Martin built in 1893 some time after Grant street was put through and Mercer street was put through up over the hill shortly after the house was built.

"The first time that I recall coming down to New Castle (from his father's farm) I remember we came down what is now Highland avenue, across Grant street to this corner (where his home now stands) and there was a watering trough for the horses here then and a small frame house across the street where the Gailey house is now," the judge recalled when pressed for details of his early recollections of the city. It was back in those days as a boy on the farm that he sometimes made the three-day trip into Pittsburgh taking a herd of cattle to market.

It was the judge's great-uncle David Martin, a graduate of Christ College, Cambridge, who later taught Latin at Christ College, Dublin, Ireland, and who escaped from Ireland with a King's Warrant out for his arrest because of some poetry that caused the King's displeasure, who came west to be the judge's grandfather's farm here for sanctuary, who became a noted preacher in this vicinity and helped to establish three churches of Presbyterian denomination, the Union church, the Leesburg Presbyterian church, and the Plaingrove Presbyterian church.

In the course of the judge's long years of law practice, his most famous case was the "Patterson Will Case" which attracted nationwide attention when the judge succeeded in breaking the will made by the late Mrs. William Patterson on the grounds that undue influence had been exerted by the legatee, a Mrs. Tingley.

The case was one that took Judge Martin all over the United States to Boston, Albany, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and numerous points in the western states taking depositions.

It took 90 days in 1912 to try the case in the court of San Diego, California, and at its conclusion the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the Patterson children after two hours' deliberation.

Approximately 20,000,000 cases of canned goods, as well as several million pounds of frozen foods are packed annually by New York state canners and food processors.

Auto Dealer Gets
$1,236,000 Verdict

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—(INS)—A jury's verdict awarding treble damages of $1,236,000 to a former Chicago automobile dealer in his suit against the General Motors

Corp., was on file in federal court at Chicago Friday.

The verdict was returned last night in favor of Fred Emich, 49, a former General Motors (Chevrolet) dealer and now Illinois Superintendent of Transportation.

Emich charged his franchisees for the operation of two GM agencies were cancelled in 1936 because he refused to do business through the General Motors Acceptance Corp. Trial of the case opened last Oct. 20 and was said by Judge Walter Labuy, who presided, to be the longest jury trial in federal court history at Chicago.

The jury of 11 women and one man deliberated 32 hours and 50 minutes before reaching its verdict.

Emich's attorneys said the decision would open the way for the prosecution of 56 similar suits against General Motors.

New Castle Announces Football Schedule For 1948 Season

Morrison Five Romps In Last Two Periods

Packed Gym Sees Elks Riddle Pulaski Defense In Whirlwind Finish; F. Pitzer, Wimer, Watters Carry Load; Wasik Again K. P. Standout.

Coming to life after a listless first period, the New Castle Elks basketball team, before a packed gym at Washington High last night, took the lead at 19 to 18 as the first half ended, and then proceeded to make a shambles out of the classic in the third and fourth periods, to defeat the K. Pulaskis 51 to 30 and even up the city championship series at one each. The Pulaskis won at the Arena last Sunday 44 to 43.

Coach Paul Morrison had an unbeatable Elks team on the floor last night. Sparked by the youthful Don Watters, former New Castle High star, whose entrance into the game in the dying moments of the first half gave the Elks renewed courage after a poor first period, the Elks "went to town".

Defensively the Elks were at their best last night. They held the Pulaskis to seven baskets, something that hasn't been done for years. Tom Carey was given the job of watching the great Stan Wasik and he did a swell job. Wasik had 12 points last night instead of 23 as he did last Sunday. At that, Wasik was again the Pulaski scoring spark.

The Pulaskis shot into a lead of 6 to 1 right off the bat and with two minutes of the first period left had a lead of 10 to 5. The period ended 11 to 8, the Elks perking up.

It was a much closer game in the second period, the Elks managing to hold on until the final minute, when they went to the front, 19 to 18, as the Pulaskis slowed down.

F. Pitzer-Wimer Stars
Taking a 20 to 18 lead at the outset of the third stanza, the Elks proceeded to run the ball to 30 to 21 midway in the quarter and then 33 to 24 at the end of the third heat. By this time the Pulaskis were wobbling.

Francis Pitzer and Fred Wimer put on a scoring show in the final period to make a rout of the battle. Both F. Pitzer and Wimer came out of the game with 14 points, and effectively were supermen last night, along with young Watters, these three boys getting 36 of the Elks' 51 points.

Pulaskis Stunned
It was the first defeat for the Pulaskis by a local team in four years. It left the Pulaski fans stunned. They had been confident that the series would end last night, but they didn't reckon with an aroused Paul Morrison coached Elks team that asked no quarter and gave none.

So foul tossing the Elks didn't do either, making 19 out of 27 tries. The Pulaskis had 16 out of 27 attempts.

Third Game Undecided

The Elks were jubilant after the game, the Pulaskis dejected. A third game is being arranged, but at a late hour last night no agreement had been reached by the officials of both clubs for the "play-off rubber".

This much is certain though, that when the two teams do get together for the third and deciding game the largest crowd in the history of basketball in New Castle will want to be there. There were over 800 fans present last night.

Interest Intense

Interest in the series has been intense. It was a well balanced Elks team that turned the tables last night. Every man had a part in the proceedings. Coach Morrison used 10 men and they responded with a great show of offensive as well as defensive strength. The Elks had a purpose in mind last night and went ahead with it, much as an executioner.

As a result of their brilliant victory last night the Elks have been installed as favorites in the third and final game.

In the preliminary game, a real thriller all the way, the Elks reserves made it two in a row over the Pulaski Cubs, 38 to 37, racking up their 20th win of the year against three defeats, as Coach George Patterson hastened to point out, after a period of jubilation.

Elks Playing New Brighton

New Brighton Legion At Washington Floor Tonight, Elks Seek Revenge

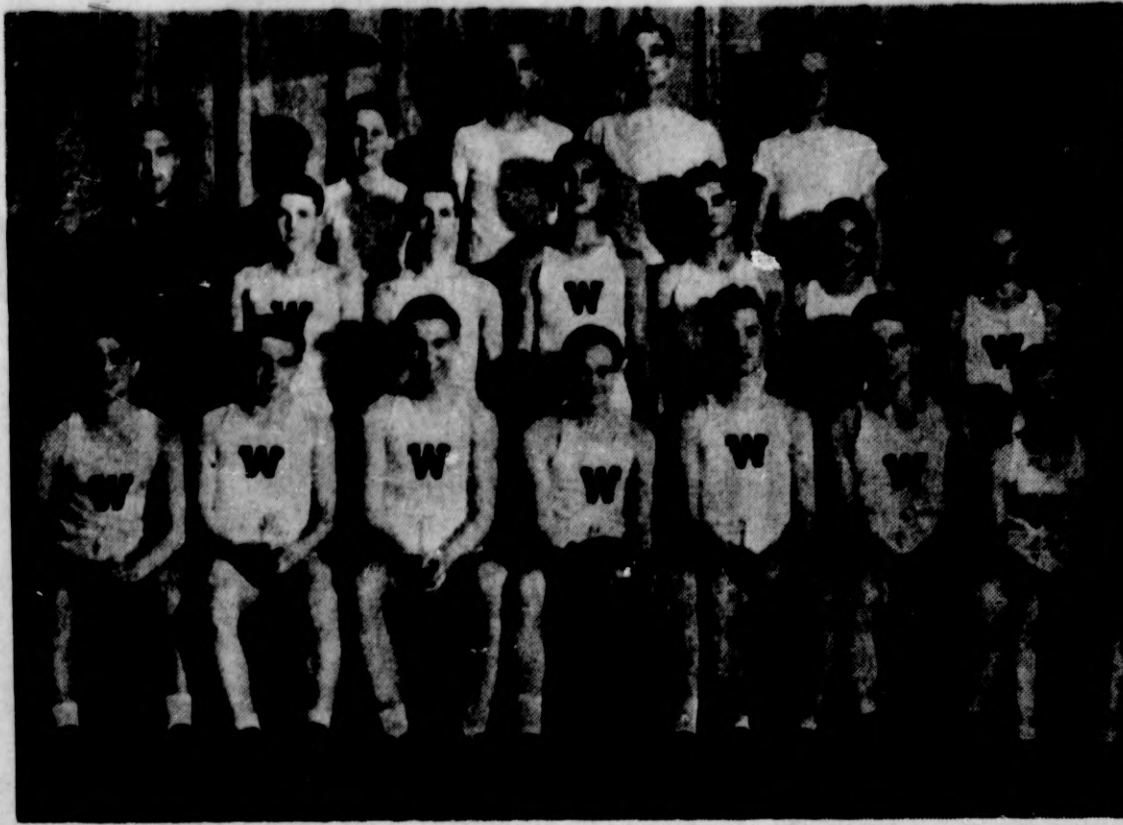

Jubilant over their stunning win last night, 51 to 30, over the powerful K. Pulaskis, the Elks club basketball team will return to the Washington High floor tonight for a battle with the New Brighton Legion, and have a little avenging to do.

In the preliminary at 7:15 o'clock tonight the Elks reserves will play the Westminster Collegians. The reserves will be after their 21st win of the year.

New Brighton laid it on the Elks earlier in the year at the valley court by a large score, and the Coach Paul Morrison lads are out tonight to even up the count. A good game is in prospect. A good crowd is indicated.

The first "Soap Box Derby" was held in Dayton, O., in 1934.

Washington Cagers Champs Of Section 15

These George Washington Junior High cagers, unbeaten champions of Section 15 of the Junior WPIAL, will enter into the league play-offs in March, meeting Aliquippa Junior High section 14 titlists. The date and site will be announced later.

Death Again Stalks Ring; Los Angeles Negro Victim

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Death for the third time in recent weeks stepped into the prize fight ring when Leroy Decatur, 20-year-old Los Angeles Negro lightweight, was felled during a bout last night at Hollywood Legion stadium and never regained consciousness.

Decatur, married and the father of a two-year-old child, was knocked to the floor by his opponent, Frederico Herrera of Jerome, Ariz., with only ten seconds remaining in the four-round preliminary bout.

Referee Tom Hart counted Decatur out, and the boxer's trainer, Benny Conyers, attempted to revive him. Dr. William Carver, the stadium physician, also worked on him and then ordered him carried to his dressing room.

He was taken there on a stretcher and pronounced dead after an injection and artificial respiration failed to revive him.

Herrera said that he hit Decatur with a left hook to the stomach, followed by a right cross to the chin. He stepped back to wait for a counter attack but his opponent, instead of coming at him, collapsed.

Dr. Carver did not immediately ascertain the cause of death and a further examination was scheduled for today. He did say, however: "I believe he was dead in the ring."

Ironically enough, it was the first professional match for both fighters. Each had about 40 amateur fights prior to obtaining their professional boxing licenses from the state.

Williams Whips Galian Of Cuba
The build-up for the Ray Robinson-Kid Galian bout soured a bit last night as the Williams merely cut the Cuban to ribbons in a ten-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Galian had extra height, reach and poundage but was no match for the savage Williams who piled up early round points and coasted to the victory.

LEGION QUINTET PLAYING WAMPUM

Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. floor the New Castle Legion will engage the Wampum post starting at 7:45. In their last meeting the Wampum five triumphed.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

MAX BAER, thirteenth heavyweight champion of the world, who had a hand in the death of two fighters, speaking in California to Curley Grieve, San Francisco Examiner sports editor, declared the worst sin of boxing is failure of the referee to stop a one-sided fight before death or serious injury results. "Why should a fighter gain a decision, have to knock down, batter, blacken eyes, cut and tear faces, and all but blast a head off another's shoulders before a referee stops a bout?" he asked. He referred to the Edward Charles-Sam Baroudi bout in Chicago, following which Baroudi died. Frankie Campbell died as the result of injuries received at the hands of Baer in San Francisco in 1930. Ernie Schaff died following a knockdown from a light punch delivered by Primo Camera. In the preceding bout, Baer had given Ernie a terrific beating in a Chicago ring and knocked him out in the tenth round. Schaff was taken to a hospital with concussion. His next fight was his last. Locally, the action of two referees in recent fights, was approved by fans. When Elkins Brothers floored Jeff Clanton and he got up in a groggy state, Referee Sam Leshock stopped the fight. Several nights ago, when Speed Williams was floored, and went down a second time, and was slow getting up, Referee Michael Hogan counted 10, then walked Williams to his corner although Williams wanted to continue the fight.

Lallo Sabotin, of Warren, who boxed at Flaherty field and in The Arena, outpointing Ike Bell in his last appearance here, defeated Oscar Cox of Nashville, Tenn., to reach the semi-finals of the 21st annual Chicago Golden Gloves tournament. He scored a T-Kayo in the third round. He is a representative of Cleveland's GG team. Willie Champion, Cleveland heavyweight, dejected Leon Tannah, Oklahoma City, to enter the semi-finals. Previously Ted Fittipaldo, Warren, was defeated as was Tommy DeSantis. The latter two boxers have also appeared here. Lin Dilks, who participated in Cash and Carry Pyle's Trans-Continental derby, and later railroad races, runs daily, he told Here & There several nights ago. He is an engineer for the B. & O. railroad company, and appears the picture of health. Hayes T. Engert, field division supervisor of Division F, reported recently that field officers under his supervision collected $17,034.50, in fines for infractions of the game law during 1947. This was an increase of $1,200.50, over 1946. He said that most of the violations for hunting prior to the opening and closing hour were by duck hunters who did not obey the federal regulations. The greater portion of fines collected was for big game violations.

SIX CLASS AA OPPONENTS, ALL NIGHT BATTLES

Nine Games Announced, One Open Date To Be Filled, Faculty Manager Mills Says

Faculty Manager Robert Mills of New Castle High announced today a nine-game football card for 1948, with one open date to be filled. The entire schedule will be played under the lights. Six of the games are class AA contests.

When New Castle begins the 1948 season on September 10, the fans will be greeted with the new lighting system, reported by authorities to be the finest high school football lighting set-up in the state of Pennsylvania. The new steel towers are being erected back of the stands.

United States to install night football, it was announced by Ralph H. Gardner, retired faculty manager, who was instrumental in getting the lights installed here 19 years ago, back in the fall of 1929. Grove City was the first night opponent, losing 13-6 to the Hurricanes.

The first lights used at Taggart stadium carried 1,000 watt bulbs, changed in later years to 1,500 watt. The new lights will carry 1,500 but there will be larger light units. The new system will make it just like day at the stadium.

New Bleachers Ready
Also when the 1948 season rolls around the new steel bleachers will be completed, 30 rows high. The bleachers last year were only ten rows. The combined seating capacity of the stadium when filled will be near 14,000.

The new steel bleachers will seat about 7,200, with the concrete stands holding 5,000, and two end bleachers the remainder.

One New Opponent
The schedule announced today carries but one new team from the 1947 card—Washington High reappearing on the New Castle schedule for the first time since 1943 when New Castle drubbed the Little Presidents 27 to 0.

Dropped from the 1947 card are Altoona and Erie Strong Vincent. The six class AA games are as follows: Butler, Sharon, Farrell, Mt. Lebanon, Washington and Aliquippa. Two Ohio schools, Youngstown East and Warren, are on the schedule. There are three games away—Sharon, Aliquippa and Warren.

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh will have but a semblance of the great 1947 club that ended the season last Thanksgiving by trouncing Bethlehem 26 to 6 in the eastern metropolis.

See Chappuis With Steelers

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 28.—(INS)—Bob Chappuis probably will perform for the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Professional Football league next fall.

S. F. Chappuis, father of the Michigan All-American, said last night in Toledo his son likely will come to terms with the Pittsburgh club after the college baseball season. He said his son has been offered a contract calling for a reported $20,000 a year for two years.

Chappuis, a standout on the Wolverine baseball nine, has said he does not wish to jeopardize his amateur standing by signing before the close of the baseball season.

During the last 25 years there have been close to 45,000,000 Americans involved in the sport of baseball.

Pitt Favored To Whip Titans

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 28.—Westminster's Towering Titans will attempt to salvage some little bit out of the current basketball season tonight when they meet the Pitt Panthers for a second time. Doctor Carlson's Jungle Cats won the first meeting at Farrell high school, 68-62, two weeks ago.

The Titans were cheered this past week by the return of Jerry Hyder, East Liverpool freshman. Hyder, injured in the Millersville game early in January, joined his mates on Tuesday evening, but still ran with a limp. Jackie Jones, little sophomore guard, also took part in the drills. He had been nursing a wrist injury following the Thiel game, but is expected to start against the Panthers.

The Panthers will be heavy favorites to top the Westminsterites. The Washabaughmen will be seeking their fourteenth win against eight setbacks.

ELLIOTT STEEL WINS
The Elliott Steel girls' duckpin team took three straight games from the Nat Mills team of Monaca last night at the Castle alleys in a league match, with Mary Sullivan rolling high three-game total of 446. The Elliott girls are in second place in the league. One game out of first. Sunday the Elliott girls will bowl the Sharon girls at the Castle alleys at seven o'clock. Next Friday the Steelers will bowl Ellwood City girls at the Castle alleys at nine o'clock.

Y.M.C.A. RESULTS
In House league games last night at the "Y" the G.I. Shines whipped the Balboa club, 46-38, and the Business College laced the Safety Five, 48-31.

Winter games were added to the Olympics in 1934.

Stanley Smith Benefit Game At Pulaski Hall

K. Pulaski 'Big Five' Playing Westminster Fraternity Team
Tonight

Hoping to bounce back after absorbing a defeat at the hands of the Elks last night, 51 to 30, at Washington High, the K. Pulaski "Big Five" will play a benefit game at the K.P. hall tonight with a strong Westminster college fraternity team.

The Pulaski Cubs will play a preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock, with a fast local club.

The entire proceeds of the game tonight will be given to Stanley "Soup" Smith, former Pulaski star performer who underwent a recent serious spinal operation at University hospital at Ann Arbor, Mich. The boys will try to realize a nice sum to help "Soup" with his expenses. A large turnout is indicated, as Smith, with hundreds of friends in the Oakland district, and a swell fellow, is well liked. They all want to help him.

The Westminster team will have a galaxy of stars in the lineup, some former members of the Titan varsity squad. The Pulaskis will have their hands full.

BID IN BALANCE
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 28.—(INS)—With a possible bid to the national invitation tournament in New York awaiting the winner, West Virginia university and Bradley Tech will be going all out against each other at the Mountaineer sym tonight.

Last season the Mountaineers whipped Bradley, 69-60, in the opening round of the tourney, and with the advantage of the home floor should make it two straight.

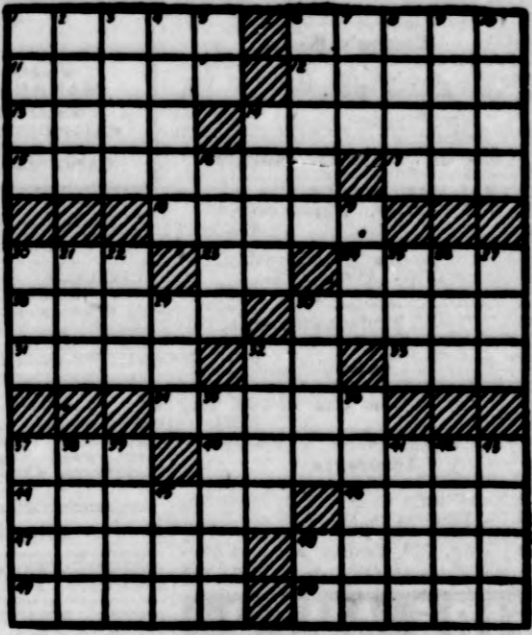

SLUM MORTALITY RATE
CINCINNATI—(INS)—In Cincinnati, a study by the public health federation revealed that the city's death rate would be about 15 per cent lower were it not for the high mortality in the slums. The pneumonia and tuberculosis death rate averaged three times as high in the slums as in the city at large. Accidental deaths occurred twice as often in the slums, and the homicide rate was four times that of the city.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
WALLA WALLA, Wash.—(INS)—Marcus Whitman was a missionary, all right, and a good one, but the "Missionaries" tag is beginning to stick in the craw of Whitman college athletic teams. After a half century of it, they say they are tired of being called "preachers" and "boys from the institute" by other schools. They want another name.
